

18. April 2021

Thank you for expressing an interest to receive further information about the upcoming supervision group.

Details of the group are as follows:

Supervision Group – Online

Matt Ball will host a supervision group for up to 6 participants. The group will focus on the participants work with individuals experiencing emotional distress. Participants will be invited to describe and reflect upon their 'work' for the group to reflect upon.

The group will not seek to 'fix' any specific issues, but to invite participants to use the group to reflect on their 'work' of being with people they support.

The Zoom platform will be used to host the supervision group (you will be required to have access to zoom to attend sessions).

Who might attend this supervision group?

Anyone who is in a role of supporting or being with another person who experiences distress. There is no specific professional role that can or cannot attend. The approach to supervision is informed by psychotherapy concepts and Humane Clinic values.

How often will the supervision group be held?

The group will be monthly on a Thursday evening at 7:30pm until 9:00pm (Adelaide time)

If a second group is required, this will likely be on Thursday 11:00am – 12:30pm (Adelaide time)

The group will be 90 minutes in duration.

A list of dates for 12 months will be confirmed prior to commencement.

What is the cost:

$85 per person per session

An expectation of a commitment to attend the 12 months will be made.

Records:

Supervision hours record can be signed for any professional registration (If participant has found this supervision meets a requirement and produces the record for signing).

Payments:

Individual Electronic invoicing will occur for each supervision group. Alternatively bulk invoices can be provided for 3, 6 or 12 months for advance payment.
